What is a Recovery Coach?

Recovery coaching (also known as peer mentoring) is a strength based support for those seeking or in recovery from addictions provided mainly by people who are in recovery themselves and as a result have gained knowledge on how to attain and sustain recovery. It is a partnership wherein the person in or seeking recovery self-directs his/her own path toward the goal of recovery while the coach provides expertise in supporting success in that change.

Recovery coaches support positive change by helping anyone including persons coming home from treatment or the criminal justice system to avoid relapse and build community support for their recovery.

What Recovery Coaches do NOT provide-

- They do not provide clinical treatment however, they may assist the individual to access those clinical services;
- They do not provide treatment or diagnosis of any addiction or mental health issue; .
- They do not provide monetary support but may assist individuals in finding those resources in the community.
